MELANCHOLY NEWS!!

It may be, to learn that Humburgery music but at the same time that it is soothed by the consolation that it died easy.

J. BROWNLEE & CO.

have possessed themselves of that invaluable secret, that enables them to kill Humburgery wherever they show themselves, but for the present they shall only let it's specific operations extend far enough to benefit the people of Marshall and the adjoining Counties.

NEW GOODS

are advertised on every corner, for sale cheaply, rather than they can be bought anywhere in the world, &c.,

NO CREDIT.

States every man in the face as well as promises to buy everything at the "highest prices." These things are Humburgery, and "headquarters" of the e-n-o parade of show, without justly.

J. BROWNLEE & CO.

are once more at home, and have a Reality to offer you and no humbug. They have a large assortment of Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware, Straw Goods, Boots, Shoes, Leather, Glass and Queens ware, and every article of goods kept in or suitable for the market, from the highest and cheapest that are ever called for, to the most common and cheap that can be used. They were bought for part cash, and part on credit, at the most favorable prices to be had in eastern markets. (It's all common for any man here to tell you he bought for cash prices, for no man here buys for cash alone.) We expect to make a living by our business, and we charge a profit on our goods; but we only charge in proportion to their real value and cost. We will sell you cheap, at steady uniform prices, and not make your eye water with one price at less than cost, and then "sell you to picket" on something else. We have dealt with you for years—have kept good goods and sold at fair rates. We don't intend to break down, and therefore can't sell cheaper than we buy, and don't pretend to do business in competition with men who do, but we will give you every cent the Market will warrant for all of your produce, and sell you goods as cheap as we can and live. We'll deal honestly by you, and don't expect to get rich off of you, but hope to make money by long and steady perseverance, as every man should, and gain it by little.

Come and see us,

Bring your families who want to trade, send your neighbors, and bring on your produce for exchange. We are selling for of some kind, and don't expect to credit much, but will accommodate when we can. We have told you the plain truth, you know it, now come along and see if you are not satisfied to trade with your sincere friends.

IMPROVED and unimproved. By C. H. REEVE.

A Magazine of Pure Morals.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE,
The best and cheapest Lady's Magazine.

A New volume of this popular periodical will commence with the January number for 1853 which was ready by the 1st of December, and is the most superb ever published.

This is now the only Magazine that gives original articles exclusively. Mrs. Ann S. Stevens, the editor, and all the best American writers, are regular contributors. More thrilling stories, tales and novels have appeared in this periodical in the last two years, than in all the others put together. The tone is that of the highest moral purity, so that every family where there are daughters, should have it. Receipts, patterns, embroidery and everything useful to the sex, appear monthly.

Colored Fashions here only.

No other Magazine now gives colored steel fashion plates, this does. Full letter press descriptions accompany each monthly plate. This is, in fact, the text book of fashion, and indispensable to all who would know how to dress elegantly, yet economically. It enables every lady to be her own dressmaker. Magnificent Mezzotints and other engravings.

The Mezzotints and steel engravings, one of which, at least, appear in every number, are unrivalled or beauty. Illustrations, as well as reading matter, indeed, this Magazine is without an equal. In fact, this is the only illustrated Magazine in the country which has steadily increased in circulation every year, which proves how superior it is.

TERMS: One copy one year $2; three copies $5; five copies $7 50; eight copies $10; sixteen copies $20.

To repay persons getting up clubs, the following splendid premiums will be given: for a club of three or five, a premium plate, 16 by 24 inches, a magnificent offer. WONDERFUL
And Extraordinary Medicine!

W. B. FARRELL'S CELEBRATED ORIGINAL

Arabian Liniment.

GOOD FOR MAN AND BEAST!

Grand Depot, 52 State Street, Chicago, Illinois

SURFACE OF THE BODY.

It is not many years since it was fully proved to the satisfaction of the world, that the skin of our bodies, as skin of most animals, would absorb poisonous substances, producing disease and death. The wonderful cures performed by Arabian physicians with external applications, is not a matter of so much surprise since this fact has become so well known, and as the surface of the body is the principal medium through which many medicines should operate, and by which means alone many diseases can be cured, this great remedy has been extensively used, and acquired a reputation which no other medicine has yet attained.

On the Human System.
It has obtained a reputation truly wonderful, in all diseases of the bones, muscles, and joints, lameness, Swellings, and painful affections, nervous and inflammatory diseases, &c.

For Horses and Cattle.

It is without a rival in Sweeney, Sulf complaint, Founder, Big head, Sprains, and Swellings, Galls, Wounds, Film on the Eye, Bites of Poisonous Snakes, and all Weakness and inflammation.

The Voice of the People—Read what they say.

Dr. J. L. Pratt, Westfield, Indiana, in a letter to W. B. Farrell, dated January 23rd 1850, says: "I have used your Liniment and other medicines, and finding them excellent and ready sale, and medicines which should be in every house and stable, I wish to know upon what terms you will supply me with a sufficient quantity to supply the State of Indiana—containing, east of the Wabash."

Respectfully Yours,
J. L. PFAFF.

COUNTERFEIT MIXTURES.

Adapted to the Arabian Liniment.

The following is taken from the Chicago Commercial Advertiser, dated August 29, 1850. The Editor, Mr. Pratt, was formerly a resident of Peoria, Ill., at which place I formerly manufactured my Arabian Liniment, and is well known to the facts in regard to the origin of this Great Remedy.

The Tack Arabian Liniment.—We noticed in yesterday's Democrat, two advertisements of Farrell's Arabian Liniment; Dr. H. Farrell, deceased, was Dr. Farrell's assistant as a sportsman's preparation, and the other, now we do not know as to Dr. G. Farrell's being a fraud, but we do know that Mr. W. B. Farrell is the original founder of this invaluable mixture, and that his is the true and genuine Arabian Liniment.

Beware of imposition.—Look out for a spurious preparation, a base counterfeit called "H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment."

The true and genuine Arabian Liniment, Indian Balm Ointment, and Family Pills are sold by
